

News which is controlled by a few large corporations becomes a commercial property and not news. A few large corporations could decide what the public may hear and control the point of view expressed. This is a threat to our freedom.